

Although we do not have XM at this time, it is our plan to have XM in the near future and we immediate access to trafffic and weather is important to our day to day business operations.